

U2L5 The Great Kapok Tree!

Study Guide

Vocabulary:

smoldering ancestors oxygen start

Grammar:

Punctuation in a sentence (commas, colons and semicolons)

Essay Questions:

What is the effect when just one small part of the life cycle is removed? (40-60 words)

How does this selection make you feel about the place of people in the cycle of life?
Explain why you feel this way. (40-60 words)

What are some of the important ideas you learned about life cycles and chains in this unit? Why are these ideas important to you? Should they be important to other people? (120-150 words)

Things to Remember/Know:

- There were several animals that spoke to the man, such as a boa constrictor, birds, a jaguar, a bee and others
- The animals helped the man see the importance of the rain forest.
- The snake and the bee both live in the tree.
- The man eventually leaves the forest without chopping down the tree.
- The snake is the first animal to visit the sleeping man.